

Who are Pure Life Leaders?

Those involved in Pure Life are college and high school students in the Tallahassee area who are committed to abstaining from premarital sex, drugs, tobacco and alcohol. All Pure Life Leaders have made decisions to follow Christ and they are committed to participate in His work in the world. They are pro-life and are attempting to live a life worthy of His calling. These college and high school students know how to have fun and are mature, responsible individuals who are ready to be spiritual leaders for their peers.

What is the purpose of a Pure Life Leader?

Pure Life exists as a ministry of A Woman's Pregnancy Center. Pure Life exists to equip men and women to share God's plan for sex and the benefits of saving sexual behavior for marriage. They serve as role models to their peers, as they speak at schools, youth groups, churches and community groups. They have made a commitment to remain abstinent until marriage – and abstain from the use of drugs, alcohol, and tobacco. Pure Life Leaders share Biblical truth and the love of Christ in a positive way with everyone they encounter through their involvement with A Woman's Pregnancy Center.

What do Pure Life Leaders do?

The Pure Life Leaders are a part of A Woman's Pregnancy Center's abstinence ministry. Their presentation is given to middle and high school students in a variety of setting in the Tallahassee area. Pure Life Leaders participate by leading small group discussions; serving as panelists in question/answer format; performing skits that illustrate important principles about love, sex and dating and by talking candidly to their peers about their decision to remain pure. The Pure Life Leaders understand that being a role model is a huge responsibility. They display their commitment to purity in every aspect of their lives including their behavior, speech and in how they dress. Pure Life Leaders display their commitment to purity in each of these areas regardless of where they are or whom they are with.

Does the Pure Life program make a difference?

The strength of the Pure Life program is college and high school students mentoring teens. It uses the powerful tool of peer pressure in a positive way. The Pure Life program allows teens to be encouraged by seeing people near their own age take a positive stand on some of life's most difficult issues. They communicate the powerful message that "everyone is NOT doing it!" Are Pure Life Leaders perfect kids? Absolutely not! We do believe that the kids who decide to become Pure Life Leaders are the "cream of the crop." They are proof that there IS hope for tomorrow. We are realistic enough to know that no one has ever lived a perfect life except Jesus! Some Pure Life Leaders have made poor choices in the past; having experienced the consequences of those poor decisions, they have made commitments to start over. Our society and the media send out the message that teens who choose abstinence and don't drink, use drugs, or smoke are the weird, untalented, unpopular kids. Pure Life programs prove that theory wrong! Pure Life Leaders are proof that virginity and self-control are COOL!

What are the requirements for being a Pure Life Leader?

A Pure Life Leader must be a spiritually mature college or high school student. They will be required to sign a one year contract; a voluntary agreement to abstain from tobacco, drugs, alcohol and ALL sexual activity. They must have a personal relationship with Jesus Christ and that commitment must be demonstrated in word, action and a willingness to share what God has done in their life. A Pure Life Leader must believe that the Bible is the infallible Word of God and that is the basis for all that we believe. Pure Life Leaders MUST ATTEND the scheduled meetings, trainings and at least one presentation and rehearsal a month. The meetings and trainings are very important times for the group. A valid reason for missing a meeting or training will be acceptable but the Pure Life Leader will have to let the director know 72 hours in advance.

Where do I learn all the stuff I need to know?

A full day training, monthly meetings and a weekend retreat will equip you with all the information you need to know to effectively present this information. No experience in public speaking or drama is necessary, just a heart that loves Jesus and is excited about sharing His plan with others.

What are the benefits of being a Pure Life Leader?

You get tremendous support for your own decision to remain abstinent. You become an integral part of a fun, loving, accepting group of kids from all over our county who have goals and dreams very much like your own. You will build relationships with dedicated adults who will encourage you, guide you and support you in your journey through this exciting phase of your life. Being a Pure Life Leader gives you an opportunity to make life-long friends who share your values, it gives you a built-in accountability group, it teaches you how to help your peers make important, life-changing decisions, and it helps you develop your own personal relationship with Jesus Christ.
